

BABY FATAL VICTIM OF MOTOR CRASH; MOTHER MAY DIE

Catherine Lattimore, four-month-old daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Lattimore, of 1324 Maryland avenue north-east, is dead at the Georgetown University Hospital as a result of an automobile accident at the New Cut and Conduit roads shortly after noon yesterday.

Mrs. Lattimore, twenty-three years old, who also was in the accident, is at the hospital in a serious condition. It is believed that she will recover.

An inquest will be held by Coroner Nevitt today to fix the responsibility for the fatal smash, when the automobile of Mrs. E. R. Jahn, of 1324 Maryland avenue northeast, skidded and turned turtle.

Baby Catherine died last night after an operation to relieve pressure on the brain.

Leavenworth Coal, Mined Under River, Credited To Missouri

Hereafter coal mined at Leavenworth, Kan., will be regarded as a Missouri product. Operators thereby get 60 cents a ton extra. While the Home Riverside coal mine mouth is in Kansas, the workings run under the Missouri river. Four-fifths of the mine's product is taken from Missouri ground. Fuel Administrator Garfield announced the change today.

the car, including Mrs. Jahn, whose condition is grave; Harvey Beddoe, twenty-two years old, and Mrs. Lattimore, probably will recover. Mrs. Louise Beddoe, Westmoreland county, mother of the young man, was uninjured.

Surgeons operated on Mrs. Jahn for a fractured skull yesterday at the hospital.

All except Mrs. Beddoe live at the Maryland avenue house.

None of the injured persons as yet has given a detailed account of the automobile trip that led to the spill.

WISCONSIN SOON TO WAGE BATTLE FOR SENATE SEAT

A great political battle is soon to be scheduled in Wisconsin, following the tragic death of United States Senator Huston. The vacancy in the upper house will have to be filled by a primary and special election.

It rests with the governor to determine when the election shall be held. The attorney general of the State has held that the vacancy must be filled by an election. Many lawyers here accord with this view and think that Governor Philipp cannot appoint.

Because the soundness of the Americanism of Senator La Follette has been challenged and a movement is on to oust him from the Senate and as the La Follette element is powerful in Wisconsin, while the opposition to it is active and bitter, it is expected there will be a rancorous fight over the succession.

Contestants Not Announced. Just who will enter the race is not yet disclosed. Wisconsin is normally Republican and this probably means that the Democrats will lose one place in the upper house of Congress.

Congressman Lenroot of Wisconsin, Republican, a friend of Senator La Follette, it is believed here, will get into the race. Though one of the supporters of La Follette in Wisconsin politics, he has come out strongly in the House for a vigorous pro-American policy in respect of the war. Congressman Cooper is also mentioned as a Senatorial possibility.

Governor Philipp himself, according to some Wisconsin politicians, may quit the governorship and enter the race. He is anti-La Follette.

Former Governor Francis E. McGovern, who broke with La Follette over the support of Roosevelt, is another possible factor.

Await La Follette's Hand.

It is plain, however, that if the La Follette forces rally about some strong man and send him to the Senate they will account it an answer to those who are assailing the Senator.
